[A late-day M-W-F bulletin from the SCS Dean's Office]

SCS NEWS

— Healthcare technology company Change Healthcare and CMU's Delphi Research Group announced the launch of Delphi's enhanced COVIDcast real-time COVID-19 indicators with de-identified claims data – in addition to survey, testing and mobility data – helping researchers track and forecast pandemic patterns.

— Tuomas Sandholm, the Angel Jordan University Professor of Computer Science, has received the 2021 Robert S. Englemore Memorial Lecture Award from the Association for the Advancement of Artificial Intelligence (AAAI) for his AI research and service to the AI community.

— A new SCS DEI Seminar Series will launch in the spring, to highlight speakers whose work in computer science centers on different aspects of diversity, equity and inclusion. Presently we're seeking nominations for presenters and volunteers to be involved in curating a robust, informative series of speakers, hosts and moderators for these conversations. Please recommend DEI speakers and topics!

CHANGE OF PLANS

— The SCS Trivia Night planned for tomorrow will be postponed until January. We'll wrap up this term, unplug and rest up, and then we'll be ready to go shortly into the new year. A January date will be announced soon.

BE SMART | STAY SAFE | WEAR A MASK | PLEASE!

Until Friday,

All of us share A Tartan's Responsibility and as members of the CMU community we must do our part to prevent the spread of COVID-19. If you plan to come to campus, you must complete the CMU Self-Assessment Survey. Even if you're not coming to campus, CMU Community Health & Well-Being strongly encourages daily completion of the survey.
